At this very moment people with disabilities are being trained and certified throughout the World by our specially trained Diveheart Instructors. You are invited to join this elite group of dedicated Instructors.

The Handicapped Scuba Association Instructor Training Course has been taught to thousands of leading Underwater Educators throughout the world since 1986. Over TWENTY Medical Doctors, and numerous other health professionals, in forty-five Countries have been trained and certified through this program.

No other Scuba Training program exists anywhere in the world like this. The training is so unique you can't even prepare for it, you must "EXPERIENCE" it.

In just three education packed days you will learn what disabilities are, what accessibility is, what Diveheart HSA training procedures are, and more. During A FULL DAY of interactive Lectures you will be introduced to thirteen types of disabilities, training procedures and Multilevel Certification, special considerations for classroom and in-water training, equipment and accessibility considerations.

During a FULL DAY of Confined water training you will be "handicapped" with your legs tied together, and with blacked out masks, then put into typically problematic training scenarios to "experience" what your students will experience. As a Scuba Instructor you teach your students to do what you do. If you haven't experienced what they will experience, you do not have the tools to teach them. This will give you the tools.

Student logistics can change significantly when disabilities are introduced into your tried and true training procedures. The half-day OPEN WATER TRAINING will prepare you to be "flexible" when conducting open water training, and dive planning.
